Sir,

I am asked by the Inspector-General of Education in Mysore to study Microscopy in addition to Ophthalmology and the fellowship

I wrote to Prof Schaeffer of Edinburgh according to the directions of the Inspector-General of Education He says "you seem to have so effectually filled up your time as to not leave very much for microscopy"

I beg to state that I am now taking my ophthalmology Courses in Oxford and the Clinical

Courses for the M.R.C.S in the King's College Hospital Since, I have to be a member before I become a fellow of the Royal College, I wish to take my MRCS in October Then take a year and half clinical training in ophthalmology in the Royal London Ophthalmic Hospital and go up for the Diploma in Ophthalmology of the oxford university by the end of July 1911 I beg to state again that there is hardly any time even for the fellowship I would be highly obliged if I am definitely instructed as to how to fit out programme—

N.B.—Should no other notes be written on small slips, the notes must be copied or slips pasted on this form

PW

With reference to Government Order No. 9280-Edn 52-09 dated 15th April 1910 sanctioning a Damodar Dass Scholarship of £ 200 per annum for Mr. B S Srinivasachariya and directing that he will be required to devote special attention to practical Microscopy I have the honour to inform you that the student was directed to study Microscopy and to Communicate with Prof Schaeffer as regards the Course of study. Prof Schaeffer wrote in reply to him that he had so effectually filled up his time as not not to leave very much for Microscopy - The Senior Surgeon recommends that under the circumstances he may be left to work out the plan he has adopted. I request that Government may be pleased to sanction this change in Mr Srinivasa Charya's programme

I have the honour to be,
Sir
Your most obedient servant,
J Wen
Inspector General.
